

Fifth Annual Political Methodology Meeting

July 14-16, 1988

UCLA

Agenda

Thursday morning:

John Freeman, Systematic Sampling, Temporal Aggregation, and the Study of Political Relationship

Nathaniel Beck, Effect of Time Aggregation on Estimation

Thursday afternoon:

John Williams, Dynamic Factor Analysis Using Frequency Domain Methods

Michael Goldfield, Proportional Hazard Models

Friday morning:

Robert Erikson, Michael MacKuen, and Jim Stimson, Modeling Changes in Popular Evaluations

Walter Mebane, Popular Evaluations of Economic Conditions and Policy in the United States, 1978-1985

Friday afternoon:

Mark Kamlet, A Strategic Model of the Budgetary Process

Gary King, A Stochastic Model of Vanishing Marginals and Materializing Seats-Votes Curves: The Sources of Uncertainty

Saturday morning:

Henry Brady, Sense and Nonsense in Dimensional Analysis

Stanley Feldman and John Zaller, Frame of Reference and the Survey Response

Saturday afternoon:

Doug Rivers, Choice Theoretical Models of Voting

John Zaller, Information Flow in Partisan Elections

All sessions will be held in 4269 Bunche Hall

Thursday meetings will be 10:00am – 1:00pm and 2:00pm – 5:00pm

Friday and Saturday meetings will be 9:00am – 12:00pm and 1:30pm – 4:30pm