
HARVARD UNIVERSITY
Government Data Center
Political Methodology Conference 1992

Wednesday, July 15

Registration:

The Charles Hotel, One Bennett Street, Cambridge

-you will receive an information portfolio when you check into the hotel

-continental breakfast is included with your room

-you will be escorted from the hotel lobby to the conference at 9:15 Thursday morning

Thursday, July 16

9:30 The Alfred Taubman Center Penthouse

Session I: Stephen Ansolabehere and R. Douglas Rivers, "Using Aggregate Data to Correct for Response Bias in Surveys."

Discussant: Jim Stimson

Session II: Michael Mackuen, Robert Erickson, and Jim Stimson, "Aggregation, Moving Attractors, and the Character of Partisan Change."

Discussant: John Freeman

Lunch will be held in the Taubman Center

Session III: Jonathan Nagler, "Testing the Symmetry Assumption of our Non-linear Models: Alternative Specifications to Logit and Probit for Dichotomous Dependent Variables."

Discussant: Simon Jackman

Session IV: Robert Erickson and Tom Palfrey, "The Puzzle of Incumbant Spending in Congressional Elections" and Tse-min Lin and Janet Box-Steffensmeier, "A Dynamic Model of Campaign Spending in Congressional Elections."

Dinner will begin at 7:30

Upstairs at the Pudding, 10 Holyoke Street, Cambridge

You will be escorted from the Charles Hotel lobby at 7:15

Friday, July 17

9:30 The Alfred Taubman Center Penthouse

Session I: Charles Franklin and R. Michael Alvarez, “Measuring Uncertainty in Political Perception.”

Discussant: Stanley Feldman

Session II: Elizabeth Gerber and Jeff Dubin, “Finite Mixture Models for Qualitative Choice: A Study of Voter Heterogeneity.”

Discussant: Larry Bartels

12:30-2:00 Lunch will be held at Shilla Korean Restaurant

Session III: Nathaniel Beck and Jonathan Katz, “Model Selection by Cross-Validation.”

Discussant: Christopher Achen

Session IV: Philip Schrodt, “Machine Coding of Events Data” and John C. Mallery, “Beyond Correlation: Bringing Artificial Intelligence to Events Data.”

Discussant: Herbert Kritzer

Graduate Student Session

Dinner will begin at 7:00

Littauer Center lounge

Saturday, July 18

9:30 The Alfred Taubman Center Penthouse

Session I: Melvin Hinich, “Estimating the Parameters of Spatial Models.”

Discussant: Henry E. Brady

Session II: Joshua Goldstein, “Reciprocity in Superpower Relations: An Empirical Analysis.”

Discussant: Renee Smith

Lunch will be held in the Taubman Center

Session III: Invited Address by Donald Rubin, Department of Statistics, Harvard University.

Discussant: Gary King

Session IV: Kenneth McCue, “Proposal for the Test of the Transition Model and the Homogeneity Model.”

Discussant: Skip Lupia

Dinner will begin at 7:00

Elizabeth and Gary King’s house

Sunday, July 19

The Charles Hotel

Session I: Walter Mebane, “A Dynamical System Model of Federal Expenditures and Congressional Campaign Finance.”

Discussant: John Jackson

Session II: John Londregan and Keith Poole, “The Political Economy of Growth, Non-Constitutional Rule, and Leadership Succession.”

Discussant: James Granato

Political Methodology Conference 1992

Chris Achen
University of Michigan
Institute of Social Research
The discussant for "Model Selection by Cross-Validation."

Jo Andrews
Harvard University

Jim Alt
Harvard University

R. Michael Alvarez
Duke University and Caltech
Giving a paper entitled "Measuring Uncertainty in Political Perception."

Stephen Ansolabehere
University of California, Los Angeles
Giving a paper entitled "Using Aggregate Data to Correct for Response Bias in Surveys."

Larry Bartels
Princeton University
The discussant for "Finite Mixture Models for Qualitative Choice: A Study of Voter Heterogeneity."

Nathaniel Beck
University of California, San Diego
Giving a paper entitled "Model Selection by Cross-Validation."

Ken Benoit
Harvard University

William Berry
Florida State University

Carlos Boix
Harvard University

Janet Box-Steffensmeier
University of Texas
Graduate Student in Government
Giving a paper entitled "A Dynamic Model of Campaign Spending in Congressional Elections."

Henry Brady
University of California, Berkeley
The discussant for "Estimating the Parameters of Spatial Models."

Suzanna de Boef
University of Iowa

John Bruce
Harvard University

Tami Buhr
Harvard University

Jim Campbell
National Science Foundation

Jay Dow
University of Texas, Austin

Jeff Dubin
California Institute of Technology
Division of Humanities and Social Sciences
Giving a paper entitled "Finite Mixture Models for Qualitative Choice: A Study of Voter Heterogeneity."

David Epstein
Columbia University

Robert Erikson
University of Houston
Giving two papers entitled "Aggregation, Moving Attractors and the Character of Partisan Change," and "The Puzzle of Incumbent Spending in Congressional Elections."

Stanley Feldman
SUNY, Stony Brook
The discussant for "Measuring Uncertainty in Political Perception."

Morris Fiorina
Harvard University

John C. Mallery
MIT Artificial Intelligence Laboratory
Giving a paper entitled "Beyond Correlation:
Bringing Artificial Intelligence to Events Data."

Ken McCue
Pactech Date and Research Incorporated
Giving a paper entitled "Proposal for the Test of the Transition Model and the Homogeneity Model."

Eileen McDonough
Northeastern University

Walter Mebane
Cornell University
Giving a paper entitled "A Dynamical System
Model of Federal Expenditures and Congressional Campaign Finance."

Jonathan Nagler
Texas A&M University
Giving a paper entitled "Testing the Symmetry
Assumption of our Non-linear Models: Alternative
Specifications to Logit and Probit for Dichotomous
Dependent Variables."

Dave Nixon
Washington University, St. Louis

Phil Paolino
Harvard University

Susan Pharr
Harvard University

Tim Prinz
University of Virginia

Sherry B. Quinones
Michigan State University

R. Douglas Rivers
Stanford University
Giving a paper entitled "Using Aggregate Data to Correct for Response Bias in Surveys."

Professor Don Rubin
Harvard University
Department of Statistics
Delivering Invited Address.

Phillip Schrodt
University of Kansas
Giving a paper entitled "Machine Coding of Events Data."

Edward Schwartz
Harvard University

Renee Smith
Michigan State University & University of Rochester
Graduate Student in Political Science
The discussant for "Limited Reciprocity and the Evolution of Superpower Cooperation."

Charles Stewart
MIT

James Stimson
University of Iowa
Giving a paper entitled "Aggregation, Moving Attractors and the Character of Partisan Change," and is also the discussant for "Using Aggregate Data to Correct for Response Bias in Surveys."

Alan Szwarski
Harvard University

Joe TenBarge
University of Texas

Carla Valle
Harvard University

Rick Vallely
MIT

Herb Weisberg
Rice University

Guy Whitton
Princeton University